ORDER EXPANDING THE MAY 1, 2014,
MANDATE FOR ELECTRONIC-FILING
FOR CERTAIN CASE TYPES

In an order dated May 1, 2014, this court designates the following case types to mandatory e-filing status:

- 1) Any negligence action arising out of the practice of a profession listed in O.C.G.A. §9-11-9.1 (d) both simple and professional negligence.
- 2) Any personal injury product liability action
- 3) Any premise liability action
- 4) Any action seeking certification of a class
- 5) Any civil action with four (4) or more plaintiffs.
- 6) Any civil action with four (4) or more defendants
- 7) Any civil action where all parties consent in writing to e-file future pleadings
- 8) Any civil action where the Court orders future pleadings to be e-filed
- 9) Any civil action involving wrongful death.

Effective July 1, 2016, this Court revises the list above by adding the following

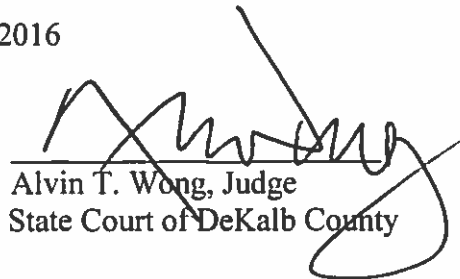

- 10) Any civil action involving personal injury.

All other provisions of the May 1, 2014 remain in effect.
